Introduction

These personnel policies are intended to acquaint employees of the Morgan County Library with general provisions of policies, rules and procedures of the Morgan county Library. These polices, rules and procedures are not to be considered conditions of employment. The Morgan County Library Board of Trustees reserves the right to modify, revoke, suspend, terminate or change any of the policies, rules or procedures contained herein, in whole or in part, at any time with or without prior notice.

The personnel policies, rules and procedures herein described supersede the terms and conditions of any previous personnel policies, plans, rules, procedures or practices.

Employment with the Morgan County Library is voluntarily entered into, and an employee is free to resign at any time. Similarly, the Morgan County Library is free to terminate the employment relationship at any time it is determined to be in the best interest of the Morgan County Library to do so.

It shall be recognized by both the employee and the employer that these policies are not intended to create nor shall they be construed to create a contract between the Morgan County Library and any employee, nor shall any of the provisions of the personnel policies herein described create an employment of any fixed or indefinite duration.

The Morgan County Library is an equal employment opportunity employer in both philosophy and practice. The Morgan County Library complies with all federal, state and local laws prohibiting discrimination against job applicants and employees, in all matters of employment including age, sex, marital status, religion, race, color, physical or mental handicap or national origin. The Library does not discriminate in matters of employment except where age or sex is a bona fide occupational qualification; physical or mental disabilities affect the applicant's ability to perform the job for which he or she applied or is assigned; or military discharge is classified as dishonorable.

Exceptions to any policy contained in this manual, or any amendment or addition there to, may be made upon recommendation by the Director and approval of the Board of Trustees.

Probationary Period

Statement of Policy

It is the policy of the Morgan County Library to provide a probationary period for employees in order to allow time for a fair and reasonable evaluation of an employee's suitability for the position and continued employment with the library. The probationary period also provides employees with an opportunity to decide if they are satisfied with the job and with the Morgan County Library.

During the probationary period it is important that the supervisor periodically review and document the employee's performance to determine whether the employee is performing satisfactorily. To allow an opportunity for performance improvement and areas in which there are deficiencies should be discussed with the employee when they occur.

Conduct on Duty

Attendance

Statement of Policy

Every employee of the Morgan County Library is essential to the overall accomplishment of the library's objectives. When staff members do not meet their attendance obligations an unnecessary burden is placed on other employees and library service is compromised.

Introduction

Occasionally it is necessary and understandable for an employee to be tardy or absent from work due to illness, a family emergency or certain other personal problems. Except for those occasional circumstances, each employee has a responsibility to be present for each scheduled work day at the correct time. An unexcused absence occurs when a staff member fails to notify the Director.

General Principles

1. The employee must notify the Director of anticipated tardiness or absence.
2. Specific notification is required every day unless absence for a specified period of time has been approved in advance.
3. In the event of sudden illness or other emergency which prevents advance notification, the staff member must notify the Director as soon as possible after the start of the work day.
4. Absenteeism considered to be excessive will be cause for corrective action.
5. Repetitive absence patterns such as excessive Friday or Monday absences (after weekends off) or excessive absence before or after holidays, will be cause for corrective action even if taken as part of accrued sick leave.
6. Excessive tardiness will be evaluated and considered for corrective action in the same manner as absenteeism.
7. Tardiness due to severe weather conditions will be considered on an individual basis.
8. Time off for voting shall be granted in accordance with Missouri law.
